WHAT A JOYFUL EVENT!

I had the opportunity to deliver almost 60 Christmas Shoeboxes to Hope Evangelical Church in Grand Forks this morning. A multitude of young kids thronged my car to help transport them inside. Others were busy packing them in larger boxes ready for shipment to the distribution center for final inspection before they traveled many many miles to the excited children who may be receiving the only gift they have ever received. But, the most precious thing was the young boy who gathered everyone around the boxes and prayed not only for the recipients of the boxes, but also all the generous hands that donated them. Thank you to everyone who filled a box or donated cash, may you be forever blessed.
